The Highest ever average for that team is highlighted in the team's color and the highest ever runner up is in bold text. The < > column shows whether a man or woman won the overall title. The highest average ever for that team at the time is also highlighted in the team color. The highest average of the year is in bold. Before 1997 the averages you see are On Base Percentages. From '97 on they are Batting Averages.
